

2023 Midwest Extension Outlook and Farm Management Conference

North Central Extension Outlook & Farm Management Conference

August 14 & 15, 2023 | Hilton Garden Inn KC Airport, Kansas City, MO
 10920 N Ambassador Dr., Kansas City, MO 64153

For 69 years, Extension professionals have met to interact, share recent research, and strategically align programmatic efforts for the year ahead. The 2023 conference will be held in Kansas City, Missouri August 14 & 15, 2023. Conference registration and suggested lodging can be found on the conference webpage: <https://shorturl.at/mtvX7>. A full schedule with speakers will be shared as soon as it is finalized. The schedule will follow this format.

Sunday, August 13th

6:00 pm Casual dinner for those in town (Old Chicago - in hotel)

Monday, August 14th

9:00 - 11:00 am North Central Farm Management Committee Meeting (agenda to come)

11:00 am- 12:30 pm Lunch on your own

12:30 pm Welcome - 2023 Planning Committee

12:40 - 5:15 pm Outlook Presentations
 U.S. Climate and Weather
 U.S. Macroeconomic and Labor Outlook
 U.S. Agricultural Policy
 Farm and Ag Finance Outlook
 Livestock Outlooks (Beef, Dairy, & Pork)

6:30 pm Dinner on your own (some may go to the KC Royals game)

Tuesday, August 15th

7:45 am Breakfast and State Marketing Specialist Committee Meeting

8:15 am State Crop Status Discussion with NASS and State Specialists

9:00 am - 12:15 pm Crop Outlooks (Corn, Soybeans, Wheat, Sorghum, Cotton, and Biofuels)

12:15 pm Lunch provided

1:00 - 3:30 pm Afternoon Presentations
 Panel: Labor Shortages and Mitigation Efforts
 Strategic Planning for Grain and Livestock Marketing Education